Schedule:

Swiss stage - 24 February 2018 | 10:00 CET

Double elimination stage - 25 February 2018 | 12:00 CET

Tournament entry eligibility:

All players who will be in top 200 of the Pro Ladder on February 21st, 11:59 PM CET. Only players who haven't yet qualified for the upcoming GWENT Challenger will be able to take part in the qualifier. For the duration of both events only, eligible PS4 and Xbox One players will receive special PC GOG.com accounts.

All other requirements from paragraph 2 of Official GWENT MASTERS ruleset apply.

Tournament registration:

All players eligible for participation in the tournament will receive an email from CD PROJEKT RED within 24 hours after February 21st, 11:59 PM CET to their email addresses associated with relevant GOG accounts. Upon receiving this email players will need to join Discord server specified in the communication and provide tournament Administrators with the following data:

- Active Challenge nickname (should be identical to the account name on Discord)
- Email associated with Challenge account
- Gwent nickname

Check-in and no-shows:

All players have to confirm their participation during a "check-in" phase on Challenge tournament platform. This phase will be active on February 24 from 8:00 to 10:00 CET. No check-in will be required on Day 2 of the qualifier.

Players failing to complete the check-in before start of the tournament will be automatically disqualified from the qualifier.

Players who will complete the check-in, but will be late for a start of any round for more than 10 minutes will automatically receive technical loss in the relevant match. If any player will be late for two matches straight he or she will be automatically disqualified from the tournament.

In case a player is missing his/her opponent after 10 minutes since the beginning of any round, he/she should report it on a #no-shows channel on the Discord tournament server and put a score 2-0 as a result of his/her match on the website.

Awarded victories (byes):

If the number of players is odd before any round of Swiss, one of the players with the lowest current score (or random player in case of the 1st round) will receive an awarded victory (bye) that will give him or her 3 points as any other victory with 2-0 score. Such player will have to wait for the beginning of a next round of Swiss to continue playing, no other actions will be required from him or her.

Forfeits:

All players can forfeit the tournament at any given moment by forfeiting the game in progress and notifying their current opponents and tournament Administrators (by leaving a message on the #results channel on the Discord tournament server).

Players will be deemed to immediately and automatically forfeit his/her Match in accordance with paragraph 11 of Official GWENT MASTERS ruleset.

Bugs and disconnects:

In case of permanent disconnect from a game of GWENT for any reason - the disconnected players will automatically lose that game. His/her opponent needs to report this issue to the #results channel on the Discord tournament server and provide a screenshot of the game's end screen.

Reporting results:

Players are responsible for updating the tournament page on Challengge with the results of any finished series. Possible results include the following scores: 2-0, 0-2, 2-1, 1-2, 1-1 and 0-0.

In case of disputes between participants, screenshots of game results are always required when contacting Tournament Administrators (#results channel on Discord).

Tournament Administrators:

Rules and format:

On the first day of the 1st qualifier (February 24), participants will compete by playing games in a Swiss-system format over the course of 8 rounds, until 16 best players are left.

- Each participant must build at least 2 decks from at least 2 different factions;
- All matches will be played in a best-of-three format and will not feature deck banning;
- Ties won't be replayed and will be registered as a normal match result;
- No two decks can be of the same faction;
- Winning decks can't be used to play another match, while losing ones may be used again or be swapped out for another;
- Decks can be modified between games and matches (Leaders can't be changed between games);
- By winning a match player will receive 3 points, by losing - 0 points. For any match that will end with a tie both players will receive 1 point;
- Players will be eliminated from the tournament after 3 losses;
- The Median-Buchholz tiebreaker system will be applied in situations where players end up with the same final score. The value it shows is the sum of a player's opponents' scores, with the best and worst scores discarded.

On the second day of the 1st qualifier (February 25), the top 16 players determined during day 1 will compete in a double-elimination format.

- All matches will be played in a best-of-five format;
- Opponents will be able to ban, in secret, a chosen enemy deck at the beginning of each game;
- Seeding will be based on results from day 1 of the qualifier;
- Each participant must build 4 decks from 4 different factions;
- No two decks can be of the same faction;
- In the event of a tie, the entire match will be restarted from the beginning with the same decks;
- Winning decks can't be used to play another match, while losing ones may be used again or be swapped out for another;
- Decks cannot be modified between matches and must be submitted to the tournament administrator to the email address decksubmission@cdprojektred.com no later than 2 hours before the tournament (by 9:59 CET 25.02.2018).
